

Hyde Park Center for Older Adults

Privacy Policy Effective as of April 4, 2017

Our Commitment to Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy, we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our About Us page and at every point where personally identifiable information may be requested.

The Information We Collect

This notice applies to all information collected or submitted on our website. On some pages, you can make payments, make requests, and register to receive materials. The types of personal information collected at these pages are: Name, Address, Email address, Phone number, Credit/debit card information.

On some pages, you can submit information about other people. For example, if you make a memorial gift online and want an acknowledgment sent directly to the family member, you will need to submit the recipient's address. In this circumstance, the types of personal information collected are: Name, Address.

The Way We Use Information

We use the information you provide about yourself when making a payment only to complete that transaction. We do not share this information with outside parties except to the extent necessary to complete that transaction.

We use the information you provide about someone else when buying tickets for them only to make reservations for them. We do not share this information with outside parties except to the extent necessary to complete that order.

We use return email addresses to answer the email we receive. Such addresses are not used for any other purpose and are not shared with outside parties.

We use non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our website. We do not disclose anything that could be used to identify individuals.

Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

Our Commitment to Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Our Commitment to Children's Privacy

Protecting the privacy of the very young is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 13, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.

How You Can Access or Correct Your Information

You can access all your personally identifiable information that we collect online and maintain by contacting us (see below).

You can correct factual errors in your personally identifiable information by sending us a request that credibly shows error.

To protect your privacy and security, we will also take reasonable steps to verify your identity before granting access or making corrections.

How to Contact Us

Should you have other questions or concerns about these privacy policies, please call us at 513-321-6816 or send us an email at dcyprych@hpcenter.org.